Find Christina's World, by Andrew Wyeth, on the fifth floor of the Museum.

This painting was inspired by the view from the artist's studio window.

Imagine you are looking at this scene through your window. How would you describe what you see? What can you tell about the person in the picture?

This is a painting of the artist's neighbor, Anna Christina Olson. Christina couldn't walk, but she didn't want anyone's help to get around. Wyeth painted this picture to celebrate her courage.

Write a journal entry from Christina's point of view. What did you explore today? What did you see or hear?
